Agenda For Talks With Churchill Laid Out By President

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman has ordered detailed preparations made for his talks with Prime Minister Churchill here next month despite Churchill's reluctance to propose a list of problems for discussion.

U. S. officials said today the United States side of the two-power meeting is being worked up on the assumption that Mr. Churchill will want to go into the whole range of policies governing relations between the two big western powers and Russia as well as specific Anglo-American issues. Both the state and defense departments are at work on the detailed listings.

Won't Ask For Money
Churchill sent word about two weeks ago that he did not plan to draw up an agenda for his series of meetings with the president, beginning Jan. 3. The American embassy in London has been directed nevertheless to seek the fullest possible information on what the prime minister has in mind in coming here.

Churchill also told an American diplomat in London that he did not plan to ask for American financial assistance. The problem of U. S. aid is, in fact, being worked out ahead of his visit by officials of the two countries at a lower level.

Three Big Items

Present indications are that Mr. Truman will bear down heavily on all three of these questions:

1. The president has said repeatedly that he does not look forward to a meeting with Stalin unless the Soviet premier comes to Washington—something everyone here considers a practical impossibility. Undoubtedly Mr. Truman

Ike Will Have To Run For GOP Nomination

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) said today he doesn't think Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower can get the 1952 Republican presidential nomination unless he seeks it openly.

The Michigan senator, who hasn't taken sides in the presidential contest, told reporters he has the

Fight Foreseen To Get Seaway

REDFORD, Mich. — (AP) — The time has come for an all-out battle to obtain the St. Lawrence Seaway, Auditor General John B. Martin, Jr., declared last night.

Martin, candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator, addressed the Kiwanis club here, asserting that opponents of the Seaway will not be beaten without an "knock-down, drag-out fight."

"The fundamental fact is," Martin said, "that this project is going to be constructed by the Canadians if we don't share in it and I don't want to see a project of this importance to the United States fall into the hands of another nation, even though that nation is a friendly one."

Answering objections to the Seaway, Martin said it would be financed by shipping tolls and would cost the taxpayers nothing.

He said Eastern Seaboard railroads might lose business, but that Middle West railroads would enjoy a greatly increased business.

Electric power developed by the Seaway will and should be handled by private channels, he said.

Patients Call Home

BATTLE CREEK — (AP) — About $250 has been contributed so far in a campaign to give all patients at Percy Jones army hospital a free telephone call home at Christmas. Official at the hospital said there probably would be 750 patients at the hospital over Christmas.

Swoosh, Clunk, Break Santa's Slumbers Today

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — (AP) — A commercial airliner flew over the North Pole for the first time today to drop mail for Santa Claus and a striped pole to mark the top of the world.

Alaska Airlines reported the bag with 5,000 children's letters to Saint Nick and the Pole were pushed out of the four-engine "Polar Express" at 12:58 a. m. (5:58 a. m. EST). The Pole was an Alaskan's idea for marking the north with something besides ice.

This lack of personnel, Williams said, "means that many posts must be closed at midnight and manned only by officers who sleep beside a telephone in case of emergency. Of course, when a call comes, off-duty men must be called out of bed to answer it. That means serious delay, as well as hardship on the officers."

The big airliner was due back to Barrow around 8:30 a. m. (1:30 p. m. EST).

The specially fitted four-engine commercial airliner furnished by Alaska Airlines left here yesterday afternoon on the first leg of the trip, "landing" at Pt. Barrow three hours later for refueling. The plane was dubbed the "Polar Express" and was the outgrowth of plans sponsored by two Alaskans—neither of whom was allowed to accompany the six crewmen aboard the plane.

Russia Against Woman

The 9-foot steel North Pole, painted like a candy cane, was fathered by Stan Garson, former worker at the Navy's Pt. Barrow oil reserve. The project was expanded by Mrs. Audree Vance, otherwise known as "North Pole Nellie," originator of the idea to have children send along their Christmas requests to Santa Claus for doorstep delivery. Santa will have to have a mighty efficient staff to handle those letters—he has only 12 days left until he starts his Christmas Eve trip southward. That's more than 400 letters a day to read and file.

The Navy wouldn't let Mrs. Vance land at Pt. Barrow—it has a rule against women at that farthest North Alaskan point. Garson was ruled out by airline and civil aeronautics administration rules that permit only crew members aboard the plane. (Mrs. Vance had been signed on as stewardess.)

This was interpreted by some as indicating Russell believes it may be difficult for Eisenhower to become a candidate for a presidential nomination. However, Russell said the general conceivably could decide that he could serve NATO better by seeking the presidency than by remaining as military commander.

Flying Boat Crash Kills 4 Navy Men

HAMILTON, Bermuda — (AP) — Four navy airmen were killed yesterday in the crash of their twin-engined PBY flying boat, which flipped over and sank after landing on the smooth waters of Port Royal Bay.

Witnesses said the right wing of the lumbering old craft dipped as the plane touched the water. The plane sank with surprising speed, they said.

The navy clamped heavy security over the crash area and Capt. Franklyn Barnes, commandant of the naval operating base, took personal charge of diving operations to salvage the old plane and bring it back to land.

Truck Is Hobby

PENTWATER — (AP) — A fire truck that has served Pentwater for 28 years was bought Tuesday by Sgt. Lester Coykendall, the Rockford Post's sharpshooting expert, for $200. Coykendall said he wanted the 1923-model truck for a hobby collection.

Injunction Issued To Halt Gambling Over Western Union

LANSING — (AP) — Ingham County Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salmon today issued a temporary injunction restraining Western Union Telegraph Co. from permitting its services to be used by gambling establishments in Michigan. The move was requested in a petition by Attorney General Frank G. Millard.

The petition charged that Western Union has leased lines to the Capital City Publishing Co., 811 Lemcke Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind., "for the transmission of horse racing news" and that the Capital City firm is operated by one John J. Gorman.

Congress Too Slow

He said individual actions in various counties have provided only a temporary remedy and that therefore a legal action should be started covering the entire state to assist local officers in the enforcement of anti-gambling laws.

Millard said he believed Congress was going to take no immediate action to control the interstate transmission of gambling information as recommended by the Kefauver crime commission.

State Police Short-Handed, Says Governor

CHARLOTTE, Mich. — (AP) — Governor Williams told for the first time publicly yesterday just how short-handed the state police are.

Addressing a Rotary club audience, Williams revealed that there are 145 troopers patrolling the entire state from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., only 125 from 4 p. m. to midnight and only 25 from midnight to 8 a. m.

Chance For Criminals

"These figures," Williams said, "have never been made public before. The state police commissioner rightly felt that disclosure of our weakness might inspire criminals to action. XX X but we have come to the point where we think it is more important for the citizens of this state to know the situation than it is to keep that situation from the knowledge of potential criminals."

Williams said the state police have 678 enlisted men. Deducting command staffs, detectives and specially assigned men, the state has 551 men to man 45 posts. Allowing leave days and furloughs, there are 442 available each day at the posts. Eliminating administrative officers and desk men, only 296 officers are available for round-the-clock police work.

More Money Needed

Pennsylvania has 1,800 state policemen, Williams said. The International Police Chiefs association formulae of proper police protection would require Michigan to have about 1,250 men, he said.

The governor said he will ask the legislature for money for more state policemen and urged the public to support the plea.

"This lack of personnel," Williams said, "means that many posts must be closed at midnight and manned only by officers who sleep beside a telephone in case of emergency. Of course, when a call comes, off-duty men must be called out of bed to answer it. That means serious delay, as well as hardship on the officers."

Radio Reaches 50th Birthday

WASHINGTON — (AP) — It was just 50 years ago today that Giuseppe Marconi sent the first radio signal across the Atlantic Ocean.

The federal communications commission marked the golden anniversary of inter-continental radio with a few observations on what 50 years have wrought.

It said:

Over 700,000 individuals are now authorized to operate radio transmitting equipment.

The United States reaches out to more than 82 foreign countries, plus its own territories, by radio telegraph, and to 88 countries by radio telephone.

There are 4,700 radio broadcast stations in the United States, plus 33,000 marine stations, 32,000 aeronautical stations, 11,000 industrial stations, 10,000 public service broadcasters, 5,200 land transportation stations, more than 800 common carrier stations, nearly 400 experimental stations and almost 100 amateur stations.

Former U. S. Customs Appraiser In Detroit Indicted For Fraud

DETROIT — (AP) — Theodor Hurwitz, 47, former chief of United States customs appraisers in Detroit, was under indictment today on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government.

A federal grand jury also returned an indictment yesterday against Philip G. Roy, manager of the Dominion Shuttle Co., Ltd., of Lachute Mills, Que.

Roy was accused of offering Hurwitz a $15,000 bribe to shave $5,000 in duty off a shipment of plywood exported by the Canadian firm.

Two of the four locks already have been drained, a third is being closed today and the final lock will cease operation Dec. 15 according to present plans. December 15 is the normal closing date.

More than 80,000,000 tons of iron ore have passed from the northern mines through the locks this season.

House Of Lords Labor Party Leader Dead

LONDON — (AP) — Viscount Addison, 82-year-old leader of the labor party minority in the House of Lords, died last night. He had been ill for 18 months.

He was the oldest member of the last labor government, which lost out in the Oct. 25 general election.

Cigarette Invented That Lights Itself

Fribourg, Switzerland — (AP) — Swiss chemical manufacturer Ernest Heimo says he has invented a self-lighting cigarette.

One end is saturated with a secret chemical which sets the tobacco afire when the tip is rubbed gently against the side of the package. It makes no flame, and there's no need to puff on the cigarette while lighting it.

Truman Can't Wipe Out Tax Scandals, Republicans Claim

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Frank Naster, accused of a part in an alleged attempted $500,000 "tax fix" shake down, asked today to be excused from testifying publicly at House hearings on tax scandals.

McKinney also said he thought that a house-cleaning would erase corruption as a big campaign issue in '52.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), commenting to reporters, said that was "wishful thinking" by McKinney. Ferguson added: "It's an issue and it's going to stay an issue."

Among today's developments:

1. Presidential Secretary Joseph Short was asked whether "any drastic action" was coming from the president today. Short said: "I just wouldn't want to make a prediction of when it will be—today, tomorrow or the next day." When a reporter said, "Then drastic action is coming?" Short replied: "You used that phrase."

2. Rep. Byrnes (R-Wis.) demanded in a statement that Attorney General J. Howard McGrath resign. Byrnes said he was convinced by McGrath's testimony to the House committee yesterday that "the urgently-needed house-cleaning in the department of justice" cannot and will not be made by the present attorney general.

Frank E. McKinney, the Democratic national chairman, came out of a White House conference late yesterday and described

The hearings resumed against a background of reports that President Truman is angry and feeling he has been "sold down the river" by disloyal government employees. He predicted quick action by the president.

Jules Yablock of New York, attorney for Naster, told the House ways and means subcommittee it would be "unfair" to require public testimony since a federal grand jury is probing the "shake-down" story told by Abraham Teitelbaum, Chicago attorney.

Yablock said Naster was willing to answer any and all questions before the grand jury.

Witness Gets Upset

Shortly afterwards, the hearing was recessed for a short period when Yablock said Naster "is so upset he cannot answer intelligently and asked a few minutes to compose himself."

Road Freeze-Up Starts Timber Rolling Again; Green Mill To Reopen

Northern Michigan's timber products are beginning to roll from the woods again today with a freeze-up that hardened road surfaces and brought the lifting of load limit restrictions.

Big truckloads of posts, ties, pulp wood and logs today were starting their trip to mills and yards; the state and county highway weight restrictions ban was lifted; and in Escanaba the Green Mill division of the Birds Eye Veneer company prepared to reopen Monday for operations.

Thawing weather starting two weeks ago knocked the bottom out of back roads and turned them into a sea of mud. The load limit order went into effect on blacktop and gravel state roads and on all county roads Dec. 4.

To Resume Operations

The freeze-up that arrived within the past couple days is hoped to continue—so far as the woods industry is concerned.

Juel Lee, president and manager of the Birds Eye Veneer company, said the Green Mill division of the plant will resume operations Monday following a six-week shut-down for repairs and shortage of logs.

Additional supplies of veneer logs are already arriving and operations are expected to continue without further interruption.

Worst In Years

The freeze-up coming after the thaw had removed much of the snow in the woods was favorable to forming a solid road bed on back roads and trunklines.

C. J. Sawyer of the Sawyer-Stoll Timber company of Escanaba said the recent dry and cold weather "is just what we want" to improve conditions for moving products out of the woods.

Water levels in swamps and streams was described by Sawyer as "the worst in many years" and detrimental to the timber producing industry.

Because of high water levels and the recent break-up hauling had stopped except on the sand plains areas where drainage keep the roads open.

Favor Cold, Light Snow

Today's mechanized movement of forest products has changed the picture of what is considered desirable conditions for production.

In the old days, Sawyer explained, cold weather with lots of snow was a help because loads were moved by horses over iced roads on the snow.

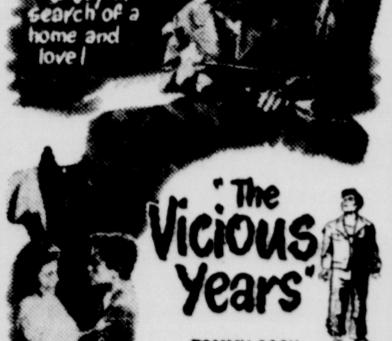

Now tractors have replaced horses for skidding and trucks are used to transport the logs from the woods to market. Cold weather is needed, but the less snow

No Marijuana, Board Is Told

Investigation Shows Rumors Are False

Supt. John A. Lemmer reported to the Escanaba board of education last night that a complete investigation of rumors of the use of marijuana or other narcotics by students of the Escanaba schools has been conducted by school officials and that the investigation has shown that the rumors are wholly without foundation.

"At no time during the course of our investigations have we discovered any evidence of the use of marijuana or other dope by school students," Supt. Lemmer told the board. "On the contrary, we have run down every rumor that has come to us and found each rumor to be completely false."

Lemmer reported that the rumors started nearly two weeks ago when a man gave two grade school students several sticks of gum. One of the girls developed a headache and the marijuana rumor was born. The investigation revealed that one of the girls had said that she had planned to analyze the gum to determine whether it contained marijuana, using a home chemistry set to make the analysis.

Story Grew Rapidly

Supt. Lemmer said that the rumor developed as a result of an overactive imagination of the young girl. School officials were given a sample of the gum.

The story grew as rapidly as Jack's beanstalk and this week rumors developed that a number of high school students had been arrested for smoking marijuana cigarettes. This rumor, like the others, was completely false.

School officials and law enforcement officers, who made a separate investigation of the rumors, reported that no students have been arrested on marijuana charges and no evidence that any students or others are using "reefers" or other dope.

The board of education accepted the resignation of Audrey Armstrong, effective at the end of the first semester. Miss Armstrong, who plans to be married soon, will be succeeded as fourth grade

Rent Increase Proposed

Action was deferred to a later meeting on a proposal to increase the rental rates for the high school auditorium and gymnasium for use on holidays and weekends in winter months. Supt. Lemmer reported that the school's cost for providing these facilities on days when school is not in session is higher because of the necessity for forced heating.

New Ford Plant Owners Are Seeking Industries

IRON MOUNTAIN—We, as the Kingsford Chemical company, have long-range plans for the expansion of the chemical area at the Ford plant, but because of the time-factor involved in the planning and engineering, we will attempt to bring other operators into the body plants who can start work as quickly as possible after the Ford Motor company has moved all of its automotive equipment and supplies out of the plant."

Martin Fenton, of Wilmington, Del., president of the newly-organized Kingsford Chemical company, made this statement here today in his first visit to Iron Mountain-Kingsford since the announcement Tuesday, Dec. 4, of the sale of the Ford plant to the new company.

Arrived Yesterday

Fenton arrived here by plane at about 4 p.m. yesterday from Wilmington, accompanied by Owen Pyle, his assistant in planning the new operation. The two men conferred here today with other officers of the Kingsford Chemical company, and plan to remain for several days, assisting in preparations for occupancy of the plant.

Fenton, who is director in various companies having large-scale operations throughout the country, is a graduate of Yale university, and served as lieutenant-colonel with the Third U.S. Marine division during World War II. He is a veteran of action with the Marines at Guadalcanal, Bougainville and Guam, and has an impressive war record.

The company president re-emphasized here today that the Kingsford Chemical company, as its plans apply to the Ford plant, is definitely an operating company and that it has specific plans for the development and operation of existing facilities at the plant, at the earliest possible date.

The Percy Williams Home for Actors, Pine Acres, is at East Islip, Long Island, N.Y. It was founded in 1923.

Diversified Industry

While he did not specify the approximate date when operation of the body plants would begin, as apart from the chemical area, Fenton said that "every effort is being made to bring other operators into the body plants, who will provide employment and diversification of industry in the area."

Transfer of the Ford property to the new company will be effective Monday, Dec. 17, according to the terms of the negotiations concluded here on Tuesday, Dec. 4. Other officers of the Kingsford Chemical company, in addition to President Fenton, are A.C. Hoyle, Iron Mountain, vice-president; Thomas E. Brittingham, Jr., of Wilmington, secretary and J.T. Malsack, Kingsford, treasurer. Directors are William J. Gredé, Milwaukee; Martin D. Thomas and F.A. Flodin, Iron Mountain, and Martin Fenton, Thomas Brittingham and George T. Weymouth, all of Wilmington.

Night Parking Ban Is Illegal

Cost Of Posting Streets Too High

Escanaba's ordinance prohibiting parking on residential streets during the winter months from 2:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m. cannot be enforced as a result of a state law enacted in the last session of the legislature, city officials have reported, but the public's cooperation in observing the regulation has been requested.

City Manager A.V. Aronson reported today that the new law requires posting of "No Parking" signs on every block, a cost that would be prohibitive. Aronson said, however, that the public's cooperation is needed for efficient snow plowing and to keep plowing costs at the lowest possible level.

"We cannot do an efficient job of snow plowing if motorists keep their cars parked at the curbs at night," Aronson reported. "Our most effective plowing during snowstorms is at night. If the plows have to skirt around parked cars in every block, a poor job of plowing will result."

No violation tickets have been issued this winter for overnight parking on residential streets. In view of the state law requiring the posting of streets where parking restrictions prevail, there will be no attempt to enforce the city's ordinance.

NEENAH, Wis.—Kimberly-Clark Corp. completed negotiations Tuesday for a controlling interest in the Munising Paper Co. at $19.50 per share, and is making a similar offer of $19.50 per share for the remaining stock.

The property located at Munising, Mich., involves approximately 75 acres of land and includes a pulp mill, a paper mill and a power plant. Total floor space is 333,000 square feet.

Munising operations are in the specialty paper field. In addition to making its own and some market pulp it manufactures fine printing paper, bonds, mimeographs, ledgers and specialty papers.

Eagles hall, and will start at 2 p.m.

The program will include movies, songs, stunts, music, and singing by the Barber Shoppers. Santa Claus and his helpers will be on hand to distribute presents to all the youngsters who attend.

Net sales this year will approximate $9,000,000 and are divided among a fine paper division, a household products division and a treated paper division.

Employment exceeds 550 at Munising. Executive and sales offices are in Chicago. Other than directors, Kimberly-Clark expects to retain the same management, including B.L. Trillich, president.

Kimberly-Clark is known in the industry as the nation's largest manufacturer of cellulose wadding and converted products and of publication type magazine and book paper.

Acquisition of the Munising facilities reintroduces Kimberly-Clark into the fine paper field. It also places the corporation in the specialty paper field, where Munising is credited with considerable product development.

In the offer to purchase the remaining common stock of Munising, W.H. Clifford, Kimberly-Clark vice president, said that it was the corporation's intention to use a substantial part of Munising Paper Co. earnings for rehabilitation of mill property.

Coin Vending Machine Business Soars To Billion From 'Impulsive' Buyers

By JAY HEAVILIN

NEA Staff Correspondent

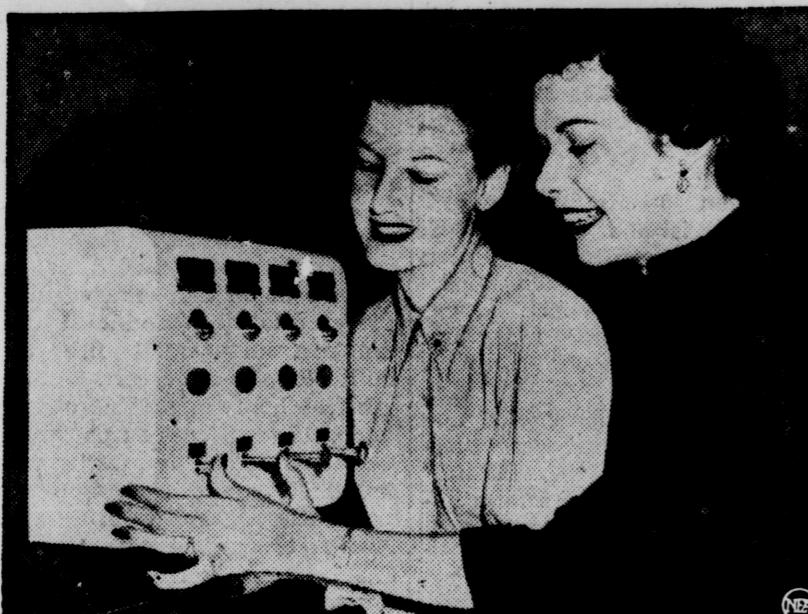

CLEVELAND—(NEA)—When you drop a coin in a slot machine to get gum, candy, cigarettes or nylon hose, you do it "on impulse" or because you are caught in an "emergency."

So say officials of the National Automatic Merchandising Association, gathered here for their fifth annual exhibition of vending supplies and equipment.

They point out that a chain smoker, caught with only one cigarette left, is as much a victim of emergency as a mountain climber in the path of an avalanche.

The emergency factor is not limited to cigarettes, although that is the industry's biggest money maker. A nylon hose machine, at a New York airport, moved 1000 pairs of hosiery at $1 a pair in a single month.

Machines that tickle the appetite and provoke curiosity are responsible for most "impulse" sales. Brightly-colored one-cent gum, chocolate, peanut and scale machines prompted New York subway riders to reach impulsively for pennies that totaled almost AROMA AND APPLES, dispensed for a coin by perfume vending machine (above) and fruit machine.

Success stories like these have spurred vending machine manufacturers on to bigger and better things. The automatic machines offered, last year, 60 different commodities. Collectors' coin bags jingled to the tune of almost a billion dollars.

This year, despite a shortage of critical materials needed for the manufacture of new machines, the coin machine industry hopes to rake in almost twice as much.

There are 2,500,000 machines that dispense such items as 768 ice cubes, 60 seconds of invigorating body massage, 12 aspirin tablets, six ounces of steamy soup, two chilly apples, or a squirt of perfume.

With 65 per cent of all vending machines in essential locations such as defense plants, military installations, hospitals—the industry is concentrating most of its efforts on the development of labor-saving, morale-building food units.

An example is the automaton that dispenses hot chocolate, broth, sweetened or unsweetened tea, and coffee, with or without sugar and cream. Widespread popularity is also predicted for an automatic vendor of refrigerated apples and pears.

Other food available for the proper coin are grilled hamburgers, hot dogs, french fries, vitamins, doughnuts, soups, hot sandwiches and ice cream in five flavors. One railroad is experimenting with machines as possible replacements for the old-fashioned candy-and-sandwich butcher.

Off the job, defense plant employees can tap machines for an equally impressive array of products and services, ranging from golf tees and toothbrushes to insurance and shoe shines.

Multiple vendors now being designed promise to supply not two or three items but as many as 25 packaged commodities from a single machine. When these become popular, warn NAMA executives, retail sales personnel may have to make way for the automatons.

But don't bet your last dime, if you haven't surrendered it to a machine, that salesgirls will disappear overnight. The number of existing automatic vendors will have to be more than doubled before the machine age really arrives.

Prepare Cost Study For Cornell Roads

A new study to determine the cost of improving local roads in Cornell township is being made by William J. Karas, superintendent-engineer of the Delta county road commission, at the request of the township.

Supervisor Fred Holmes, representing the Cornell township board, asked the road commission to have such a study made. The report will be presented to township officials.

Cornell's action is in connection with a program proposed by the road commission under state law to have townships allocate funds for local road improvement. Several townships have earmarked funds for that purpose.

Under an act passed by the legislature, local road maintenance is financed by weight and gas tax funds according to state formula, but construction or other improvement must be paid from local funds.

Atty. William E. Anderson, chairman of the Advisory Council, named to the committee Earle Allingham and Mrs. William Weycker, jr.

The recommendations of the Advisory Council were formulated after a series of meetings over a period of several months.

Agenda For Talks With Churchill Laid Out By President

man will seek to discourage Churchill's espousal of this project.

Recent Churchill statements bearing on the defense build-up in Western Europe are described by administration leaders here as disappointing. Churchill has said that he does not consider the danger of war with Russia as great now as it was at the time of the Berlin crisis three years ago. American officials are apprehensive that this means he believes there is less urgency than they see in getting on with the task of rearmament; they believe the danger of an aggressive Russian move is greater now than it was three years ago, due to the western build-up, and will remain great until the west has military power in being to make any Communist aggression too costly to undertake.

Distinguished visitors included four general chairmen. They were: J. H. Whaley, C. N. W. railway; E. G. Brady, Soo Line; A. C. Dobson, Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railway; and W. M. Maki, Lake Superior and Ishpeming railway.

Other prominent visitors included: Fay Pierce, chief of the railroad division, Michigan Public Service commission; C. A. Stanislaw, B. R. T. Michigan state legislative representative; H. C. Craine, secretary of general grievance committee; C. & N. W.; and E. C. Gallion, B. R. T. field representative.

Atty. Denis McGinn served as master of ceremonies at the banquet program. He gave an interesting history of the development of the railroads in this country. He described the various types of early locomotives and traced the great progress made in this field up to the modern diesel engines.

Stanislaw made a strong plea to brotherhood members and their wives to oppose the trucking industry in their attempts to get permission to transport explosives on public highways. He urged his listeners to contact their legislators, both in Lansing and Washington, and make known their views on this subject.

Stanislaw described a tragic week that occurred recently near Kalamazoo when a loaded gasoline truck drove into the back of a crack Michigan Central passenger train. The train was sprayed with gasoline, he said, and enveloped in flames resulting in the injury of several members of the train crew and truck driver.

Other speakers on the program included J. H. Whaley, Fay Pierce, E. C. Gallion, E. G. Brady and "The Four Tissims," local barber shop quartet. An evening of dancing was enjoyed to the music of Groleau's orchestra.

Members of the banquet committee included F. J. O'Donnell, P. J. McDonough, M. G. Heath and C. E. Wood.

Korean Orphan Benefit Dance Saturday Night

A Korean Orphan Benefit dance will be held Saturday night at the senior high school gymnasium, it was announced today by Jerry Olson, student manager, who is putting on the assembly lines during 1952.

DETROIT—(AP)—If plans already announced are carried out there will be at least two more light weight cars next year.

Willys-Overland and Hudson will introduce the newest of the lighter, high fuel-mileage vehicles unless materials or other shortages prevent their production.

Unlike the Kaiser-Frazer and Nash lighter units, the Willys and Hudson cars will be more nearly of standard wheelbase. However, both will boast high fuel mileage.

Besides these two companies, a couple of others reportedly are also experimenting with lighter weight cars. There is no present indication, though, that they will be put on the assembly lines during 1952.

The number of Allied troops in Red hands has been estimated at from 98,000 to 139,000. The U. N. says it holds between 120,000 and 135,000 Chinese and North Korean Reds.

The only new factors introduced in the Red plan would be to exchange prisoners in groups at Panmunjom, the sick and wounded first, under joint Allied-Red supervision.

The Reds said it would take them a month to deliver all prisoners.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckles, U. N. spokesman, said "the question of prisoners of war is being held over our heads" to force what he called an undesirable solution of the prisoner and truce supervision problems.

Concessions Lacking

A U. N. spokesman said the Allies made "major compromises and concessions" in its new effort to break the 16-day deadlock over how to supervise the truce.

The Reds said the U. N. concessions "were insufficient," the Allied communiqué reported, but agreed to study the offer.

The Allied proposal conditionally accepted the Red idea of teams of neutrals supervising the truce, and also agreed to withdraw from some islands off the North Korean coast. The U. N. would keep its troops on islands more than three miles from shore, and withdraw from those closer in shore.

The U. N. said it would make concessions on these two points if the Communists agree to (1)

Mirror Festive Yule Picture

Imagination, a paint brush and paste made from cleansing powder and water were all that were needed to create this light-hearted Christmas Eve scene on mirror above living room mantel.

By ANNE LARSEN

For those who begin early enough to put a bit of time and thought into their efforts, indoor Christmas decorations can be among the most pleasant of holiday chores.

An elastic imagination can stretch your budget this year, since a lively eye can spot decoration supplies everywhere from the cellar workshop and the coal bin to the sink cupboard.

The cleanser you use to clean the sink and the bathtub makes an excellent art material when it's worked with water into a paste. The consistency of poster paint. Make up a bowl of this paste, give each child a paint brush, and you're all set for one of the merriest decorating sessions ever.

Window panes may be adorned with reindeers, snowmen and jolly St. Nicks; glass-topped coffee-tables take on a festive air when sprinkled with white stars or a wreath design.

Marines' Boss Hero Of Corps

All The Leathernecks Like Gen. Shepherd

By ROY ESSOYAN
(AP) Newsfeatures

PEARL HARBOR—Lieut. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, jr., will have to give up his surfing and spear-fishing when he takes over as commandant of the Marine Corps Jan. 1, but he won't stop fighting.

The tail of the cone should be twisted until it curves upward. This is finished with a smaller arrangement of ornaments.

Candle Decorations

Gay candle decorations to complement the cornucopia can be devised from wire, heavy enough to hold its shape, which has been wrapped around a broomstick to form a spiral. You'll need eight inches of wire for this, and florist's tape—or the sort used for stems in corsages—to wrap about the wire before twisting it into its corkscrew-shape.

To this spiral, attach three ornaments made of metallic-paper fringe or Christmas tree bulb reflectors through which stem ornaments have been thrust. Slip the entire arrangement down a candle to its base. Low candle-holders are particularly effective when these adornments are paired with the cornucopia.

If base metal is available in your neighborhood, an attractive candle sconce can be made from 12 cones of this material mounted upon a circle of cardboard. The candles are held in spirals of heavy brass wire which is attached to the back of the sunburst, and silver stars with Christmas-ball centers are used to adorn the whole.

LT. GEN. SHEPHERD AP

Shepherd has earned a few superlatives. He is probably the most travelled high-ranking officer in any of the services—nine trips to Korea, 900 hours in the air, 165,000 miles behind him since July 2, 1950.

Shepherd at 55 has flown in everything from a jet fighter to a four-engined transport. That includes helicopters. His appearances at the front have become a commonplace. Visits with wounded Marines at Triple Army Hospital are part of the daily routine at his Pearl Harbor headquarters.

Everybody Likes Him

The general is friendly and informal. He is soft spoken, hard-working and universally liked.

Shepherd is an Episcopalian and hasn't missed a service since he's been here. His friends say he is devoted to his wife and family, two sons and a daughter, all married.

His tastes are simple—from vanilla ice cream to baseball. He was a polo player in his youth but sold his horses when he left Quantico for Pearl Harbor last year.

About the only things Shepherd hasn't quite mastered yet are surfing, and driving a car. Surfing as the Hawaiians will tell you, requires years of concentrated experience and, preferably, a Polynesian ancestor. Shepherd can concentrate all right, but behind the wheel of a car he apparently concentrates on other things.

Man Bites Octopus!

Shepherd however is an old hand at the Polynesian art of spear fishing underwater. During a practice landing in the Pacific War the Seabees were temporarily stumped by the appearance of an ugly, giant octopus. Shepherd walked over, picked up the octopus and bit it between the eyes. That was the end of the octopus.

Shepherd joined the Marines right after his days at the Virginia Military Institute. He was in the Fifth Marine regiment in France in 1918, and was twice wounded in Belleau Wood and once again soon after. In World War II he was assistant commander of the First Marine division in the New Britain campaign. Shepherd was born in Norfolk, Va. His father was a doctor.

53 Monks Carry Out Old Trappist Tradition In Remote Jap Village

By SFC. AL KAFF, U.S. Army Written for NEA Service
MAKODATE, Japan—(NEA)—At two o'clock in the morning, there is not much activity in the tiny fishing village of Oshimabetsu. But far up on the hill overlooking the village, the day has already begun in the brick monastery of Our Lady of the Lighthouse.

The monastery is home to 53 Trappist monks, who begin their day of work and devotion at 2 a.m. Our Lady of the Lighthouse is one of two Trappist monasteries in Japan; the other is in southern Japan. This one is on the rugged, cold, remote north island, Hokkaido, only 250 miles east of Siberia.

Like Trappists in Europe, Africa and the U.S., the Japanese monks keep a strict regime. At 2 a.m., they arise to sing in Latin the ancient chants of devotion of Roman Catholicism. In the unheated church in one wing of the building, they begin their long day by chanting the Matin, first of the seven canonical hours.

Outside, lights twinkle from fishing boats in Tsugaru Strait, which connects the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Japan, and the boats bob in the fresh, chill wind. Inside, the cold night air doesn't disturb the worshipping monks, their Oriental faces bent over the Latin books.

After the Matin, they spend two hours in silent meditation, with a single candle shedding a feeble light. At 4 a.m., the first mass is said. At 5:30 a.m., their first devotions complete, the monks pad softly in bare feet to the dining hall.

At long board tables and wooden benches, they silently eat breakfast. All they have is milk at breakfast and supper, with a noon dinner of soup, bread vegetables and milk. More devotions and high mass follow breakfast. Five hours of manual labor daily is the only deviation from their life of silence and worship.

The Japanese Trappists carry on the European tradition of excel-walls.

Fourteen monks were forced into military service, and four killed. The Japanese Army used the monastery as a billet. When the war ended, there were only 35 members. Today, it is back to 53, including a monk from France and one from Germany.

The Japanese monks are a young group, mostly between 21 and the 40s. Father Thomas Takashima, the monastery's father superior, is 43. Many were born into Buddhism and Shintoism, the religions that embrace most of Japan's 80,000,000 people.

In the six years since the war, 15 candidates have entered the monastery. There are three students studying there now.

"In Japan," said Father Takashima, "we are few, but the conditions since the war are better for our growth. We think the war was providential."

Army Buys Car Parts With Supply On Hand To Last 104 Years

DETROIT — (AP) — Congressional investigators were told here that before the Korean conflict the army was buying automotive parts on which it already had a 104-year-supply on hand.

John L. Shaffer, investigator for a probing committee headed by Rep. Porter Hardy (D-Va.), said he had learned that on looking into purchases of the army's tank-automotive center here.

He said his investigation covered a total of 206 parts common to military vehicles. Years of supply on these parts, he testified, ranged from one to 104 years.

"Based on what usage?" he was asked.

"The highest ratio of usage between 1946 and 1949," Shaffer replied.

Shaffer also told the investigators of more instances in which the army doubled some costs by buying through middlemen rather than direct from manufacturers.

As an example, he said, the center bought trucks and replacement parts from the Mack Manufacturing Co., of Allentown, Pa., although told by Shaffer that the practice of buying through middlemen cost the defense effort more than $300,000,000 in excess profits during the past three years.

The monastery was founded in 1896 by seven monks from France. Two years later, they were joined by the first Japanese Trappist monks. By 1940, there were 50 monks. Then came the war, which cloistered them.

Little Rita Walks Alone To Repay Polio Fund

By BRIAN COYNE

NEA Special Correspondent

ARKANSAS CITY, Kans.—(NEA)—A misty-eyed young girl stepped out of a car in front of the big V.F.W. memorial hall in Arkansas City. While people held their breaths, she walked—alone—up to the building and into the big dining room.

Rita Hammer, 14, was walking without help for the first time in two years, and her slow but sure journey into the V.F.W. hall was to pay back those who had helped her lick infantile paralysis.

Across the street, in pits dug in a couple of vacant lots, a barbecue sizzled. The beef for it came from six yearlings Rita's father, H. H. (Earl) Hammer, had cut out of his herd in nearby Dexter. The trimmings—beans, potato salad, bread, coffee—came from the people of Arkansas City.

Rita's father had the idea for the barbecue as a way to repay the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for the $2,000 hospital bill the foundation picked up when Rita was stricken two years ago. Before he got through, the whole town pitched in.

An old friend, Harry Derry, local V.F.W. commander, got the veterans' organization to provide the hall and line up the rest of the food as a community service project.

Local butchers volunteered to slaughter Hammer's yearlings. A couple of barbecue experts from the Flint Hills Coon Hunters Association presided at the pits.

On the big day that Rita walked alone again, Red Cross canteen workers hustled plates from the pits to the dining hall from 10:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. to feed several thousand people who had donated $1 to get "a big stack of barbecue" and help the polio fund.

Other thousands sent in money—some from distant states—and wrote "don't send us a ticket; just write to the fund."

When the last plate had been emptied, and Rita had been bundled up in a car to watch the giant Arkalalah Fall festival parade down Arkansas City's main street, Hammer and his friends started adding up the returns.

They found they had more than $5000 to turn over to the polio foundation to repay the $2000 bill for Rita's recovery.

"We know that people are good," Hammer said, "and we have received hundreds of letters from all over the country telling us Rita's recovery from polio has given new hope to their own sons or daughters who are suffering from the disease now."

Rita spent six months in a Wichita hospital, and another year and a half at home in braces and casts. There were later expenses, including a spinal operation, that Hammer paid for himself.

The polio fund's $2000 had no strings attached, but Hammer felt it was a "moral obligation." And the people of Arkansas City thought the town had a share in that obligation, too.

The barbecue was a big day for brown-haired, dark-eyed Rita. There was an even bigger one a few days later. She answered the roll call at Dexter junior high, back again with all the teen-age friends who had been dropping in to bring school to Rita's living room for the last couple of years.

Newest Pueblo School Named After Janitor

By JOHN H. WALKER

NEA Special Correspondent
PUEBLO, Colo.—(NEA)—On the newest school in this city are the words: "George Spann School." The man thus honored is a lean, weather-beaten, 68-year-old employee of the school system. He's a janitor.

School officials say it's the first time in American history that a school has been named in honor of a still-living custodian. They named the new elementary school still being built, after him because he was more than just a janitor. He made his job a career.

To students he was "dad away from home," a guidance officer, a counselor, a patcher of quarrels and fights and a healer of wounds.

School officials put it this way: "He performs his janitorial tasks dutifully, Spann's extra-curricular work with the children highlights his 34-year service with the schools."

His work continues, too, through the ranks of parents and teachers and combined organizations of the two groups. As each succeeding generation passed through the same Risley School which he had served for 24 of his 34 years, he gained the respect of the parents and then of the students as they became parents.

The children themselves have this to say about George Spann: "He's swell. He sure is the best fellow we ever knew."

And teachers and his school principal say: "He's uncanny, his work is miraculous. I don't know what we'll do without him when he's gone."

Spann became slightly choked when he spoke of the rare honor accorded him.

"It sure gives me a thrill. I think it's the most wonderful thing that could happen to a man."

Network Highlights

NEW YORK—(AP)—Today is an important anniversary in radio. Exactly 50 years ago Guglielmo Marconi heard the first wireless signal over the Atlantic.

It was only the three dots that make up the code for the letter "S" but it pointed the way to new paths in communication. Marconi, with two assistants, P. W. Paget and G. S. Kemp, had installed their antenna and receiver on the bleak coast of St. Johns, Newfoundland. The transmitter was at Poldhu, Eng.

To celebrate the anniversary of the event, the American Radio Relay League has arranged to transmit a program from its headquarters station, WIAW at West Hartford, Conn., at about noon today a special message to its radio amateur station members. The time coincides with that of the original "S".

For the second time within a month, CBS radio and television will carry a west coast boxing match that starts at 7 o'clock Pacific time to meet a 10 o'clock Eastern time audience. The event is tonight's meeting at San Francisco between Ezzard Charles, former heavyweight champion, and Joey Maxim, light-heavyweight champion. It is a 12-round non-title fight and their second match.

On the air tonight (Wednesday): NBC—11 a. m., Strike It Rich; 2:30 p. m., Five Lives of a Millionaire, talent; 5:30, Longman Jones; 6, Father Knows Best; 10, Hit Parade.

The children find him a banker, too, willing to lend them pennies, nickels, and cents. And he's an expert scorekeeper, umpire and coach. He's also a jack-of-all-trades, who can straighten the handlebars of a bicycle or mend a doll's crushed arm.

Lansing Office Building Job To Cost $3,200,000

LANSING — (AP) — The State Administrative Board has awarded contracts totaling $3,200,000 of the rebuilding of the fire-damaged state office building.

The total was more than the $2,900,000 approved for the project by the legislature, but the contracts contain 60-day cancellation clauses on "extras."

In the interim the legislature will be asked to decide whether to supply the extra money or eliminate such items as the air conditioning, a coffee shop and other extras.

Lt. Gov. William C. Vandenberg

asked if the cancellation period could be extended to 90 days. State Building Director A. N. Langius said it was difficult to get the contractors to agree even to the 60 days.

The board approved a $150,000 emergency fund for the State Highway Department to build erosion control structures along the Great Lakes shore where high water is threatening highways.

Deputy Highway Commissioner Harry C. Coons said that most of the work would be temporary amounting to building of revetments with barge stones to break up wave action.

Approval of purchase of $11,000 worth of foreign-made steel was rescinded by the board when it was learned the seller refused to reveal details of the source. Last week the board approved the purchase of 60 tons of German steel from the Copo Steel Co. of Detroit on the condition that the details of the steel's origin would be revealed.

Sachet Adds Extra Touch

This young woman sprinkles sachet powder between layers of her garments as she packs, to add an extra touch of femininity to her holiday hours.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

There are certain small niceties that distinguish living from mere existing. Flowers on the dining table, while useless as food for the palate, are solid and satisfying fare for the eyes.

Sachets, too, are extras that pay big dividends for the woman whose scale of values places aesthetics on a par with practicality. Although they have no claim to the sort of functional purpose that advanced, for example, by mothballs, they are none-the-less important for the touch of graciousness and luxury that can be added to the humdrum of daily routine.

If the strewing of tiny sachet bags among the garments in your lingerie drawers is already an established custom for you, here's a tip to heighten your own and others' pleasure when you are vacation-bound.

As you pack your traveling bags, sprinkle sachet powder over each layer of underthings as you lay them in place.

Not only will you get a lift from the scent that rises each time you open your suitcase, but you'll also find, when your destination is reached and you don these garments, that you've endowed yourself with a special femininity.

To prevent your curtain rods from tearing the filmy fabric when you're slipping freshly-ironed curtains onto them, try covering the rough end of the rod with a thimble or the cut-off finger of an old glove.

Funeral Services Will Be Friday

Wilfred Carl Eck, 40, of 704 Garden avenue, passed away Monday night in a Newberry hospital where he had been taken earlier that day.

He was born Jan. 28, 1911, in Escanaba and moved to Manistique with his parents while still a child. He was married Oct. 28, 1934, to the former Denise Rousseen, who survives.

For the past several years he operated the Manistique Ice and Dray company here.

Survivors besides his widow are three daughters, Charlene, Patricia and Marcia; one son, David, and his father, Charles Eck, of Manistique.

The body arrived yesterday afternoon from Newberry and is now at the Kefauver and Jackson funeral home. Friends may call this evening and until funeral time at 2 p.m. Friday.

Services will be held from the funeral home with Rev. G. A. Herbert, of the Zion Lutheran church, officiating. Burial will take place in Fairview cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Lauritz Hough, Robert Hewitt, Verner Ekstrom, Oliver Mickelson, John Archambeau and Arthur Hough.

Auxiliary Group Approves Plans For Joint Party

Plans for a joint Christmas party with the American Legion post were approved by the Legion auxiliary at its regular meeting Monday evening.

The joint event is slated for Thursday night, Dec. 13, at the Legion clubrooms, with music being furnished by Mrs. Bertha Johnson, auxiliary pianist. Admission to the party will be canned goods, soap, etc., which will later be used in the auxiliary's welfare basket.

Pot luck lunch at the party will be furnished by the auxiliary.

At its meeting the group also voted to donate $6 to the Otter Lake billet and $25 to the Christmas basket program.

Mrs. E. J. Doyle was appointed toy chairman for 1952.

Auxiliary books, recently audited by Mrs. George Stephens and Mrs. Alex Cooper, were reported in good order.

The program also included the reading of a short article on national defense by Mrs. George Huber, district national security chairman; a short talk by the auxiliary president; two piano selections by Mrs. Bertha Johnson; and two readings by Mrs. Elwood Taylor, a guest at the session.

Exchange of gifts and a lunch followed. Tables were decorated in the Christmas motif. The hostess committee was composed of Mrs. E. J. Doyle, Mrs. John Vaughan, Mrs. Robert Walters, Mrs. Leon Wood and Mrs. George Huber.

Two tables of canasta were in play at the conclusion of the program, prizes going to Mrs. Anton Weber and Mrs. Jacob Weber.

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday evening, January 14, at the clubhouse. The hostess committee will be announced later. Three new committees are to be named at this meeting.

Menominee Coach Speaker Monday At Quarterback Meet

One way to build good football teams, according to Coach Ken Radick of Menominee high school, is to start a full grid program in the grades, with boys in uniform playing under regular varsity rules.

Radick, recently voted "coach of the year," spoke at a meeting of the Manistique Quarterback club Monday evening at the VFW hall.

Part of every Wednesday during the grid season at Menominee is devoted to juvenile football games, with an admission charge of 10 cents for students and 25 cents for adults, he said.

Students participating in juvenile football are required to maintain good school records, and their eligibility to play must be cleared each week with the principal, Radick said.

About twice a season they get a message from the varsity coach who tells them that they are being carefully watched as future varsity players, the speaker said.

Radick said that varsity footballers are required to take an active part in other extracurricular activities, both as participants or by their attendance at such functions. He also urged that the same eligibility rules which govern on the football field should apply to other school activities.

All such after-school activities, including sports, serve a com-

Guards To Go To Ishpeming

Weekend School Scheduled There

Members of the Manistique National Guard company are scheduled to be in Ishpeming Saturday and Sunday to attend a weekend school, it is announced by Capt. E. J. Doyle, commanding officer.

They will attend a banquet Saturday evening in honor of Lt. Col. William F. Milford, Jr., who is retiring from the engineering corps of the National Guard, and Lt. Col. Leonard C. Ward, of Escanaba, present battalion commander.

Final military drill of the year will be held Monday evening at the armory, Capt. Doyle said, with Major Frellsen Reese, of Ishpeming, present for his regular monthly inspection. Guardsmen unable to attend the drill may make it up during the week.

Two members of the local company, Sgt. Everett Pate and John P. Quick, have returned from Fort Belvoir, Va., after completing a three months' combat foreman course. They can qualify for a second lieutenant's rating after completing a correspondent's course.

City Workers To Get Turkeys

Purchase Of 61 Birds Approved

Employees of the city will again receive Christmas turkeys, it was decided at the regular meeting of the city council Monday night.

Bids from two dealers were opened, and the purchase order was placed with the Boot Lake Turkey Ranch, south of Shingleton, at a price of 69 cents per pound for fresh dressed eviscerated birds. A total of 61 turkeys will be purchased.

Christmas turkeys for several years have been purchased with refunds received from the city's compensation insurance. Such refunds are based on lack of loss-time accidents among municipal employees.

Defer Action On Bond Resolution

City Attorney And Engineer To Confer

Drafting of an ordinance covering the issuance of revenue bonds for the proposed city water project will be deferred until City Attorney William Hood and George W. Francis, of the Francis Engineering company, Saginaw, can have a conference, it was reported at a regular session of the city council Monday night.

The city attorney was instructed to proceed with the drafting of the ordinance at a previous meeting of the council.

A letter from the Francis firm acknowledge receipt of city instructions to proceed with work drawings also was read at the session.

Vaughan Hangs Onto Men's Keg Turney Lead

CHICAGO — (P)—Little Jimmy Vaughan of Torrance, Calif., was still on top of the heap as the bulky field of 160 male bowlers in the National All-Star Bowling tournament was pared to 46 for today's semi-final round.

Vaughan, a 27-year-old accountant and graduate of Southern Methodist University, held a 84 pin lead over Ray Schanen, Milwaukee, who jumped into second place.

Vaughan had 5091 pins while Schanen had 5007 for the 24 games rolled in the preliminary rounds.

The 14 finalists will be chosen from the 46 bowlers today. The total pin tall in the preliminaries combined with total pins in the 12 games today will determine the top 14. They will join with Dick Hoover, defending champion, and Jim McMahon, 1949 titleholder, in round robin head-to-head matches beginning Thursday and continuing until the champion is crowned Sunday night.

One of the features of the qualifying round was the failure of three former champions to make the semi-finals. They were Buddy Bomar, Chicago; Connie Schwaegele, Madison, Wis.; and Andy Varipapa, Hempstead, Long Island, N. Y.

The 46 men in the semi finals included Detroiters Bill Bunetta, 4962; Fred Bujack, 4945 and Buzz Fazio, 4915; Bill Golembiewski, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Ed Lubanski, Detroit, 4853; Ned Day, West Allis, Wis., 4781; Jerry Silvas, Detroit, 4777; Herman Gibson, Detroit, 4770; Lee Jougard, Detroit, 4730; Joe Joseph, Lansing, Mich., 4728; Bill Williams, Detroit, 4719.

Name Of Morton Funeral Home Here Is Changed

The name of the Morton funeral home has been changed to the Messier-Broullire funeral home, it was announced yesterday by Donald E. Messier and Robert W. Broullire, owners.

Messier and Broullire purchased the business last February from George E. Morton who had operated the funeral home since the late thirties except for a period he served in the navy during World War II.

Messier, who graduated from Escanaba high school in 1943, served his apprenticeship at the Boyce funeral home in Escanaba from June, 1946, to June 1948, and graduated in 1949 from the Wisconsin Institute of Mortuary Science, Milwaukee. He served in the army air force during World War II, spending almost two years in the Pacific area.

Broullire, who served three years in the navy during World War II, graduated from Iron Mountain high school in 1943. He served his apprenticeship under George E. Morton here during 1946, 1947 and 1948, and graduated from the Wisconsin Institute of Mortuary Science in 1949.

Messier is Schooncraft county veterans counselor and also is a member of St. Francis de Sales church, Knights of Columbus, VFW and Lions club.

Broullire, recently appointed coroner, is a member of Zion Lutheran church, Masonic lodge, Order of Eastern Star, Elks, Rotary club, VFW and American Legion post.

Broullire resides at 226 Range street and Messier lives upstairs at the funeral home. Both are married.

The Escanaba Hawks are not alone in their enthusiastic preparation for the rapidly approaching hockey season . . . Nearly 20 players, representing all parts of the city, turned out for a two-hour practice session on the Palestra ice in Marquette Sunday . . . Escanaba and Marquette are tentatively set for a match Thursday, Dec. 20 . . . Financially, the Marquette picture also looks good . . . Charles Favored To Beat Maxim Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP)—Ezard Charles, who confidently expects to regain the heavyweight crown next year, is a 1 to 3 favorite to defeat Light Heavyweight Champion Joey Maxim in a 12 round fight tonight.

The charity exhibition, in the Cow Palace, will be televised coast to coast, excluding this area, at 7 p.m. (10 p.m., EST) to catch eastern viewers. It also will be broadcast.

It will be the fifth meeting of the pair. Charles won all four previous bouts by decision, including 15 round defense of his title before Jersey Joe Walcott knocked him out this year.

Both fighters are at peak condition. Maxim, who trained at nearby Santa Rosa, looked impressive against heavier sparring partners. He is a master boxer and lacks only a real kayo punch to become a menace in the heavyweight ranks.

Charles Slugging

Charles, who drilled here before capacity gymnasium crowds, gave onlookers many a thrill by slugging it out with sparring partners, although he is a good boxer, he has discarded this style in favor of a two fisted attack.

Maxim recently successfully defended his 175 pound crown against Irish Bob Murphy. If he can hang up a decisive win tonight he is expected to start campaigning in the heavyweight division.

There is more at stake for Charles than for Maxim. Ez can lose a lot of prestige if he is defeated. He has a contract with Walcott stipulating he gets first crack at the championship. A poor showing against Maxim could hurt the gate receipts in the return go with Walcott.

Charles is expected to scale around 188 pounds and Maxim 177 when they weigh in at 11 a.m. today.

Charles won decisions over Maxim twice in 1942; in 1948 and last May 30, in a titl defense.

The fight is expected to gross about $100,000 from a near capacity crowd of 15,000. TV rights will add another $25,000.

Charles will get 35 per cent of the net and Maxim 27½ per cent.

Notre Dame Streak Intact

NEW YORK — (AP)—Furman's surprise victory over Duke and the extension of Notre Dame's and NYU's winning streaks featured play in college basketball last night.

Denver's conquest of Ohio State; St. Louis' defeat of Canisius; Oklahoma A&M's overtime triumph of Southern Methodist and Kansas State's victory over California also were prominent in the national picture.

A field goal and free throw by Neil Gordon in the last 28 seconds gave Furman its unexpected 73-72 triumph over Duke and Dick Groat at Shelby, N. C. Gordon was fouled as he made the field goal, then calmly sank the free throw for the winning point.

Fourth Irish Win

Notre Dame, led by Negro Sophomore Joe Bertrand and Entee Shine, nickered Northwestern, 65-54, at South Bend. It was Notre Dame's fourth straight victory and second over a Big Ten quintet.

NYU made it eight in a row by coming from behind to beat Yale at New Haven, 68-67.

Denver likewise came from behind to whip Ohio State, 67-58, at Columbus as Gale Toft tossed in 22 points for the Skyline conference five.

Detroit Lions Following 1935 Championship Steps

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — (AP)—The Detroit Lions won their only championship in 1935. This season the Lions are following the same path—almost step for step—as the 1935 crew.

The youthful Lions are hoping the strikingly-similar pattern keeps up for two more weeks of National Football League play. Here's what has happened so far:

In 1935 the Lions got virtually counted out of the race at one time. The same thing happened this year after the Chicago Bears licked the Lions midway through the season.

Same Storm

In 1935 with two games remaining, the Lions sat in second place in the Western division. Same story this year.

In 1935 the Lions won their next-to-last game to move into first place ahead of the Green Bay Packers. Last Sunday the 1951

Gwinn Dumps Rapid River By 75 To 54

RAPID RIVER—Gwinn dumped Rapid River from the list of unbeaten cage teams in fast 75-54 game played here last night before a capacity crowd.

Rapid River tumbled after four straight wins this season. Gwinn is one of eleven undefeated clubs in the U. P.

In spite of their losing effort, Coach Norman Slough termed the game "the best we've played this season." The game was moved up to Tuesday night in a schedule change last week.

Hot Pace

Gwinn roared off to a 22-13 lead in the first period and maintained a potent pace throughout the remainder of the game. At halftime the invaders led 42-24. Rapid River rallied to outscore the visitors 19-18 in a torrid final period.

Bruins Reshuffle Lineup To Defeat Rangers By 4-2

(By The Associated Press)

The Boston Bruins have re-snuffed their lineup and the new array is likely to be troublesome for National Hockey league opponents.

The New York Rangers found it so last night, at least, as the Bruins pasted them with a 4-2 licking at Boston.

Boston lined up against the New Yorkers with Ed Sandford, normally a center, playing left wing for the first time in his career. The rest of the front line had Capt. Milt Schmidt at center and Bill Ezinicki on the right wing.

The boys liked their positions so well that they scored all the Bruins' goals. Ezinicki scored two and Schmidt and Sandford one each.

The win helped Boston strengthen its hold on third place in the standings below Detroit and Toronto. New York tightened its grip on the cellar.

Lions beat the Los Angeles Rams to take the lead from the Rams.

In 1935 the Lions faced Brooklyn in the final game, needing a victory for the division title. Brooklyn had beaten the Lions earlier. But the Lions won 28-0. This season the Lions face the San Francisco 49ers Sunday in the final game, a victory or a tie would give the Lions the division title. The 49ers edged the Lions earlier.

By grabbing the division title, the Lions would qualify for the playoff game against the defending champion Cleveland Browns. The Browns cinched the Eastern division crown last Sunday.

In 1935 the Lions tackled the New York Giants in the playoff game and won 26-7. Buddy Parker, now head Lion coach, played on that Detroit team.

Parker and his lads think they can beat the 49ers this time, in a game that will be watched and heard by thousands of Michigan fans over three television stations and a radio network.

49ers Have Chance

But they temper their confidence with the realization that the 49ers still have a chance to win the championship and might rise to a peak performance.

This is how the teams stand: Detroit 7-3-1; Los Angeles and Chicago Bears, 7-4 each; San Francisco 6-4-1.

If San Francisco wins while Chicago and Los Angeles both lose, San Francisco and Detroit would tie for the division championship. That would mean an additional game.

Detroit and San Francisco would meet in San Francisco Dec. 23 if that happens. The NFL playoff game would then be moved to Dec. 30 at the stadium of the Western division winner.

The Lions concentrated on sharpening their offense yesterday in a workout at Hamilton Air Force base field. The team is in top physical shape.

Joe DiMaggio Retires From Yanks, Baseball

NEW YORK—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio, definitely through as a player at the age of 37, is expected to remain in the New York Yankee organization in the role of a television broadcaster.

The great outfielder, who yesterday announced he would never wear a baseball uniform again—as a player, manager or coach—is considering an offer as TV commentator of Yankee home baseball games.

While both parties refused to commit themselves, Yankee President Dan Topping admitted DiMaggio had been offered the TV job "among other propositions." DiMaggio said all his offers dealt with radio and television and "it is possible" he will accept the Yankee bid. The TV post reportedly would pay him $50,000 a season for three years.

Good Spirits

DiMaggio planned to leave his home in San Francisco on Friday to think over all the propositions. He said he expected to reach a decision "some time next week."

The Yankee Clipper appeared in good spirits as he outlined his reasons for quitting before grinding cameras, glaring lights and the largest sports press gathering since the days of Babe Ruth.

"Old injuries that lingered on and some new ones hastened my decision to retire," DiMaggio explained.

Another reason was night baseball. Joe estimated the arc light play cut about two years off his career.

"It gets tough to recuperate the next day from a night under the bulbs when you get older," he said. "Night ball should be played every night or not at all."

"You don't get to bed until two in the morning, or so, and wake up at 10. I found that wasn't enough rest to get the aches and pains out of my system. I'd go to the park for an afternoon game the next day, and sometimes I wouldn't wake up until the fifth or sixth inning."

Can't Produce

"I feel I have reached the stage where I can no longer produce for my ball club, my manager, my teammates and my fans," he added. "I had a poor year last season. But even if I had hit .350, this would have been the last year for me."

Against the Emeralds, the local mentor switched Lowell LaPlante and teamed him with Capt. Tom Moreau at guard in the second half and they controlled the defensive backboard in that period.

This has caused Keil to consider the possibility of using a smaller team and attempting to make up in speed, ball handling and floor work what they would lack in height.

The Munising game here and another against Escanaba at Escanaba next Tuesday will wind up the pre-holiday basketball. The schedule will be resumed following the holidays at Stephenson on January 11.

Marquette Site Of Olympic Trials For Hockey Team Berths

BOSTON — (AP) — Reduction of the East's squad of more than 35 candidates to 22 was announced today by Bob Ridder of St. Paul, Minn., manager of the 1952 U. S. Olympic Hockey team.

Those survivors will be cut to 12 just prior to the Olympic Team's East-West game here on Dec. 31.

Ridder said he and Coach Connie Pleban will be in Marquette, Mich., this weekend to hold preliminary tryouts for the 25 or 30 Western candidates. The Western final tryouts will be held at the University of Minnesota on Dec. 20-21 and about 12 players will be selected to accompany Ridder and Pleban to Boston for the East-West game.

"After the East-West game, we will make our final U. S. Olympic team selections and it will play a series of exhibition games in New England and New York before sailing for Europe on Jan. 17," Ridder said.

Golden Gloves Workouts Under Way In Escanaba

Weight Classes

Flyweight, 112; bantam, 118; feather, 126; light, 135; welter, 147; middle, 160; light heavy, 175; and heavyweight, all over 175.

Trophies will be awarded winners of each class in the Upper Peninsula tournament and winners will represent the U. P. in the Milwaukee Golden Gloves elimination tournament the final week in January.

Plan Survey To Learn If Additional Hospital Facilities Are Necessity

A survey to determine the need of a hospital in Gladstone is to be made by the Hospital committee of the Gladstone Chamber of Commerce, according to a resolution adopted by a group of local citizens attending a Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting last evening at the Lincoln Hotel.

The committee is to report its findings at the next meeting of the Chamber.

A. J. Cayia, Manistique, president of the Inland Lime and Stone company in Schoolcraft county, told of the experiences of Manistique in promoting and building a hospital in Schoolcraft county.

Need is the first determining factor, he declared, and then it must be decided if it is to be a county, community, or private hospital.

He said in Schoolcraft county to watch the demonstration that follows the final whistle of every Michigan-Montreal game.

The loser swarms over the winner with congratulatory back slaps, hand shakes and statements.

The fans love this series, in general, and the genial Montreal coach, Arthur Therrien, in particular.

Refreshing Change

Therrien's eye-rolling, gesticulating manner in the face of adversity and his joking exchanges with the crowd, a far cry from our own series approach to athletics, is a refreshing change.

Since the rivalry began, the two teams represent the best in collegiate hockey squads on both sides of the border.

They've already built into the fans an expectation of rugged, clean hockey of the highest order, with the concentration on just that throughout.

No Alibis

And missing, after the game is played, are the usual sports statements about "look at the scoreboard" (the winner) or "we woulda won but . . ." (the loser).

Take the past weekend's typical pair of contests.

Michigan was the first to explain away the 9-2 Friday night win by pointing out that the Montreal squad was handicapped by a long train trip that brought the visitors here just in time to don uniforms and face off.

And Montreal's 5-4 win Saturday night brought statements from the other side that they were lucky Michigan was offside when it scored tying goal in the last few seconds.

Few Penalties

Consider the penalties, an index of the style of play. Friday night, Michigan drew four penalties, Montreal two. Saturday night, Michigan drew two, Montreal three. In the opener the previous Wednesday, Michigan drew 13 penalties and a major for fighting.

If you doubt the sincerity of the sportsmanship, you ought

- (1) What's wrong with inter-collegiate sports?
- (2) What can be done about it?

The presidents are members of a special committee set up by the American Council on Education, a private body of educators, to study college sports. They laid the groundwork for their studies in a meeting here last month.

Today they were to hear from a football coach, Lloyd Jordan of Harvard, and two physical education experts, Thomas E. McDonough of Emory in Georgia and S. C. Staley of Illinois.

Jordan is president of the National Football Coaches association. McDonough heads the College Physical Education association, and Staley is president of the American Academy of Physical Education.

The hearings are behind closed doors. But Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State College and chairman of the committee, tells reporters after each session.

The physical education programs at some schools have come in for criticism.

Judge Saul S. Street of New York, who denounced college sports on two different occasions while sentencing or giving suspended sentences to former college athletes, has been especially bitter.

On Nov. 19, Streit said Sherman Johnson, a Negro back from Drake, Bright who holds the record for yardage gained in a college career, was put out of action with a broken jaw in the game with Oklahoma A&M and lost a chance to repeat as the 1951 leader in total yardage. That honor went to Kazmaier, with 1,827 yards.

Bright was followed by Washington's Hugh McElhenney (6), and Baylor's Larry Isbell (5) and Kentucky's Babe Parilli (5). San Francisco's Ollie Matson received four votes.

Kazmaier, a two-time All-American, already has won the Maxwell and Heisman awards as the player of the year. He truly was the inspiration of the Princeton team this year and came through magnificently in the Tigers' big game with Cornell.

Others who received votes included Bill Reichardt, Iowa, 2, and the following with one vote each: Fred Benners, Southern Methodist; Vic Janowicz, Ohio State; Alan Amache, Wisconsin; Bud McPhail, Oklahoma; Don Klosterman, Loyola (Calif.); Bob Mathias, Stanford, and Paul Geil, Minnesota.

Sacramento, Calif.—Joey Lopez, 1304, Sacramento, outpointed Chu Chu Jimenez, 135, Mexico City, 10. Los Angeles—Baby Face Guttierrez, 123, San Diego, outpointed Leo Ray Richardson, 123, Los Angeles. White Plains, N. Y.—Johnny Williams, 145, Birmingham, Ala., outpointed Phil Burton, 145, St. Louis, 8. San Jose, Calif.—Eddie Chavez, 139, San Jose, outpointed Julio Jimenez, 140, Mexico City, 12.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

Youth Bound To Circuit Court

Escanaba Admits

Two Burglaries

John Summers, 17, 233 N. 20th St., Escanaba, waived examination on two charges of burglary in the night time upon arraignment before Justice of Peace A. T. Sohlberg last evening and was bound over to circuit court to stand trial.

Bond in each instance was set at $2,000 and he was remanded to the county jail to await trial when bail was not furnished.

Summers was specifically charged with breaking and entering of the Shaw Cleaning establishment on S. Tenth street last Friday night and taking $12.35 in cash and two pairs of trousers and two shirts and also with entering the home of Jack Beauchamp at Flat Rock and stealing $451.00 in cash.

Summers arrest came through a series of incidents. Saturday night he used a roll of pennies to pay for a lunch at a local restaurant. The city patrol car parked in front just as he came out and alerted by the startled look of Summers upon seeing the police car the night officer jotted down the license number of the car Summers was driving. Shortly after the officer was advised of the penny incident and a search for the auto started.

Monday night a car similar to that sought was spotted by a state trooper on a driveway of a north Escanaba gas station and a check of the license revealed it to be the car.

Summers was placed under arrest and taken to the Escanaba city police station where he readily admitted the Shaw cleaning robbery and told the officers about the Beauchamp case.

Officers checking at Beauchamp found that Beauchamp was not yet aware of the loss. All but $39 of the money was recovered. The clothes taken at the cleaning establishment also were recovered. Summers was wearing a pair of the pants and a shirt at the time of his apprehension.

It was accepted with regret and a resolution commanding Mathison for his five years of public service was adopted by the governing body.

Mathison, veteran Gladstone newspaperman, has accepted employment in the general advertising department of the Milwaukee Sentinel. He started work on Monday, Dec. 10.

R. A. Hale, Gladstone outdoor advertising man, was named to fill the vacancy on the commission caused by the resignation. He will serve until the next regular election. Commissioner Walter Lied was named to the board of supervisors of Delta county to replace Mathison.

Mathison's letter of resignation follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Orville King and son, Richard, and Mrs. James King sr., arrived here yesterday to visit at the Raymond King home, 414 Wisconsin avenue, and attend funeral services for Cpl. David King scheduled for Thursday.

Elmer Cripe of Portland, Oregon, is visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cripe and other relatives. Enroute here he visited in Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and lower Michigan.

Mrs. John M. Johnson of Rhinelander and Mrs. Anna Dahl of the Soo have left for their homes after spending several days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Orville Hoover and Mrs. William Mineau. The Johnsons are moving from Rhinelander to Shawano where Mr. Johnson will be employed by the Soo Line.

It is my further hope that I may one day return to Gladstone to live and work.

Yours for a better Gladstone.
